CHARGED WITH LARCENY BY RELATIVES.

DURING THE ABSENCE OF HIS SISTER IN EUROPE WILLIAM FREUDENTHAL SOLD HER HOUSES FOR $87,000 AND KEPT THE MONEY.

William Freudenthal, of No. 142 East Fifty-eighth-st., was held at the Yorkville Police Court yester-day on the charge of larceny of $87,000, made by his brother-in-law, Albert Wagner, and his wife, Kate, of No. 321 East Sixty-fifth-st. Freudenthal was formerly the manager of Terrace Garden, and now in the insurance business. On May 7 the Wagners sailed for Europe, giving Freudenthal a power of attorney to sell the houses. Nos. 411 and 413 Grand-st. Freudenthal succeeded in seiling the property for $87,000. When the Wagners returned to this country on October 1 they demanded an accounting. This Freudenthal, they allege, refused to do, nor did he give them any of the money. The Wagners gave him every chance to settle. Last Monday they asked him to make an accounting. Freudenthal came to their house and assaulted Wagner and his wife, while they were seated at the dinner table. The Wagners then reported the matter to Inspector McLaughlin. As it was then too late to secure a warrant from any of the courts, without which Freudenthal could not be arrested, a "fake" telegram was sent to him, asking him to come to the Yorkville Court, as a man wanted to see him. Freudenthal fell into the trap.

Freudenthal, in his defence, said that he sold the property in question for $82,000, and received in exchange mortgages on other property, which he was forced to sell below price, and lost the rest in poor speculations. ners sailed for Europe, giving Freudenthal a power

THOMAS MURPHY'S WORK FOR TEMPERANCE. Waterbury, Conn., Oct. 21 (Special).-Thomas Murphy, the son of the famous Francis Murphy, addressed an audience of nearly 3,569 people at the auditorium to-night. Since last Sunday he has held nine meetings, and nearly 2,500 persons have signed the pledge. The average attendance at each of his meetings has been over 3,000. The capacity of the immense auditorium has been tested to the utmost on each occasion. In his work Mr. Murphy is assisted by his wife and by an efficient Citizens Committee. The entire city has experienced the wonderful effects of the Murphy revival, and the blue ribbon is in evidence on every side.
